Directs the department of community, trade, and compensation claims.

Declares an intent to clarify requirements related to the use of base year hours and wages for certain employees at educational institutions, for the purpose of determining Finds that, unless clarified, Washington's unemployment compensation law may be out of conformity

Conway, Kenney, Wood, Hunt, Schual-Berke, Romero, Edmonds, Kagi, O'Brien, Haigh and Ruderman

Establishing family leave insurance.

Finds that, although family leave laws have assisted individuals to balance the demands of the workplace with their family responsibilities, more needs to be done to achieve the goals of work force stability and economic security.

Finds that many individuals do not have access to family leave laws, and those who do may not be in a financial position to take family leave that is unpaid, and that employer-paid benefits, including family leave and disability benefits, meet only a relatively small part of this need.

Declares it to be in the public interest to establish a program that: (1) Provides additional options for individuals to use in balancing work and family responsibilities;

(2) is in addition to those programs offered by employers;

(3) provides limited income support for a reasonable period while an individual is away from work on family leave; and

(4) reduces the impact on state income-support programs by increasing an individual's ability to provide care-giving services for family members while maintaining an employment relationship.

Finds that Washington state's increasing development pressures have correlated into greater disturbances to archaeological sites and native American burials. Currently, disturbing an archaeological site without a permit is a class C felony. However, this penalty is not being applied due to competing demands on law enforcement.

Declares that new tools are needed to protect the state's heritage.

Provides that every person who fails to comply with chapter 27.53 RCW or the rules adopted under this chapter may be subjected to a civil penalty, as determined by the director or the director's designee, in an amount of not more than five thousand dollars for every violation.

HB 1190 by Representatives Schual-Berke, Campbell, Romero and McMorris

Regarding medical billing.

Does not intend providers' billing practices to be evaluated under rules not clearly in place and publicized to providers at the time the bill was prepared.

Finds that the public-private partnership necessary to provide services to recipients of public assistance and medically indigent persons will be jeopardized if there is not scrupulous fair play on the part of both parties. That fair play includes having easy to understand billing rules applied prospectively only.
